Seventh-day Adventist Church

Sabbath, Nov. 23 — Pastor Carpenter's sermon was based upon the importance of 'Small Things Scripture texts were found in Zech. 4:6-10 "So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me saying what are these my Lord?" "Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, no my Lord." Then he answered and spake unto me, saying. This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel saying not by might nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of hosts."

The angel explains that by the candlestick is foreshadowed the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation, the beginning. In verse 9 he says "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands shall finish it. Verse 10—this question is asked "For who hath despised the day of "Small Things?"

We should be very careful about small things, a few good carefully doing small things is the way God works said the pastor citing the story of Gideon, faithful Daniel, Joseph and others. So many are not the little things, therefore, large numbers will be sifted when the time of trouble comes.

He called our attention to the life of Jesus, the 30 years at Nazareth quiety and carefully performing faithfully the everyday tasks of life, preparing a solid foundation for the great work he was to do for last suffering humanity. Reminding us that we should not pattern after the world but take Christ as our example in all things. Also mentioning the man with one talent. That went and digged in the earth and hid his Lord's money. Many said he because they can serve only in "Small Things" think themselves justified in doing nothing. In this they do err, God in distribution of gifts is testing character." He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much."

Three Polio Cases Reported In Goochland

Three cases of poliomyelitis were reported for the week ending Nov. 23 from Goochland County. The 7-year-old boy and the 8-year-old girl had not received any Salk vaccine. The 15-year-old boy had received three Salk injections, i.e. 4-29-55, 3-12-58, and 5-5-58. Dates of onset of symptoms were listed as November 11, 14, and 19. Poliovirus Type I has been recovered from two of the cases.

All cases are from the Sandy Hook community. Two reside in the same household across the road from the other case. The children attended the Negro elementary school serving the area which is across the road from the consolidated high school.

On November 22, oral vaccine Type I was given to the students attending the two schools and to parents and pre-school children from the community. It is hoped that this measure will boost the immunity of this population and limit the spread of the virus. A countywide oreal vaccine proprram under the direction of the local physicians is planned for December 8, 1963.

Legion Auxiliary To Meet Monday

$11,000 In Watches, Diamonds Stolen From Local Jeweler

An estimated $11,000 worth of diamond rings and wrist watches was stolen from Gaines Jewelry store in Appomattox, sometime between Wednesday, Nov. 27, at closing time and Friday morning at 8 when A. G. Gaines, dis covered the loss.

Mrs. Gaines reported that watch cases and costume jewelry were strewn on the floor as the thieves cleared out display cases.

Gaines said the burglars had broken a glass from a rear door to gain entry. More than 100 watches and 25 matched engagement and wedding sets were cleaned out.

Mrs. Gaines said Saturday that inventory lists were not complete but that every effort is being made to replace the stolen merchandise promptly with new items in order to meet requests for Christmas gifts.

She reported that a previous attempt to enter the store was made on November 20 or 21, the same time that West End Market was robbed.

An investigation is being conducted by State Police Investigator R. David Jones and State Trooper J. A. Crawford.

Subdivision Street Is Being Widened

Highway engineers are currently widening a section of Main Street, Appomattox, to 40 feet.

The widening project is part of a proposed subdivision in Appomattox, according to Attorney Harry Gordon Wilson, who signed for the executrixes of the estate. Wilson announced Tuesday that the subdivision will be opened after the first of the year. Morton Lane extends from Ferguson St. southeast to Court Street, where widening operations in an area adjacent to Memorial Methodist Church are now going on.

Dist. President Compliments Appomattox

Mrs. J. Kent Early, president of the Alice Kyle District, Va. Federation of Woman's Clubs, introduced Mrs. Giles Engledove, state president, before her after - dinner address Monday evening, Dec. 2, at the Parkway Restaurant.

"I love to come to Appomattox," Mrs. Early said. "Since I was a tiny girl visiting in my grandmother's home, Appomattox has always held an awe-inspiring place in my heart." (Mrs Early's grandfather was Captain James Lucas Tompkins, Judge Advocate in General Robert E. Lee's Army.) She paid tribute to the late Senator Sam Ferguson recalling "his consideration for other lawyers and his courtliness." She mentioned friendships with both Judge Joel Flood and Senator Charles Moses and their families.

Mrs. Early spoke highly of Mrs. Engledove and her association with her in Woman's Club activities.

Credit Agencies To Meet Here

Representatives of banks, production credit association, Farmers Home Administration and other credit agencies will meet in Appomattox, Thursday, Dec. 12, 1963 to discuss methods of meeting the increased credit needs of farmers who suffered substantial losses from the recent drought, according to Hunter P. Evans, Appomattox County FHA supervisor.

Appomattox County was designated for emergency loan assistance this fall by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman. His action permits the Farmers Home Administration to make loans to eligible farmers unable to fully meet their credit needs from conventional lenders.

Credit leaders expected to attend include Wm. W. Burke, President of The Bank of Appomattox; William A. Hunter, cashier of the Farmers National Bank; and J. A. Overstreet, Assistant Manager of Federal Land Bank Association.

"The drought has caused extensive damage in this area. The Farmers Home Administration's emergency loan program will be discussed with credit officials at the meeting," Hunter P. Evans continued, "and I am confident that with our agency serving as a supplemental source, adequate credit will be available so that no deserving farm family in Appomattox County will have to liquidate their business or suffer needlessly. Emergency loans will enable farmers to avoid selling off foundation livestock, machinery, and otherwise reducing their inventories needed to operate their farms because they cannot obtain sufficient livestock feed or need to raise cash for operating expenses. The long-standing policy of Farmers Home Administration is to be responsive to the needs of farming communities hard hit by financial and physical disaster."

Emergency loans can be advanced for (a) the purchase of seed, fertilizer, insecticides, and payment of other farm operating expenses (b) necessary equipment repairs, (c) when necessary, purchase of essential replacement farm equipment, (d) when necessary, payment of not more than one year's taxes on personal property and farm real estate, not more than one year's premiums for insurance on personal property and farm real estate and social security taxes for hired labor, (e) family subsistence needs, and (f) expenses incident to making the loan.

To be eligible for FHA credit a farmer must be primarily engaged in farming and have reasonable prospects for success in the farming operations he plans to carry on. Loans bear 5 per cent interest. Repayments on loans depend upon purposes for which funds are advanced and upon the estimated income of the applicant. Loans are secured by liens on crops financed and on chattel property such as livestock and machinery and by liens on real estate when necessary for adequate loan security.

The Farmers Home Administration county office is located in Farmville in the Watson Insurance Building on Main Street. Mr. Evans also has part - time office hours at Appomattox at the ASCS office on Tuesday mornings from 9:00 to 9:30 a.m.

'Sabin On Sunday' Clinics Set For Appomattox, Dec. 8

Easy As 1-2-3

The Kelsey children above illustrate how easy it is to take a dose of Sabin vaccine. This Sunday, from noon to 5 p. m. come to the Appomattox cannery. Pamplin cannery, or Oakville Elementary School for your Life-Saving Sabin vaccine on a sugar cube, by spoon, or in a paper cup. Every man, woman, and child in the county should take the vaccine, say local doctors. Poliomyelitis can be wiped out if everyone takes Sabin on Sunday on December 8, January 19, and March 1. Phil, Hardy, and Karen Kelsey, of Appomattox, are the children of the Ray Kelseys, dairy farmer, of Route 3.

Doctors Asks For 100% Attendance

Get your polio vaccine Sunday. Sabin oral polio vaccine will be given from noon to 5 p.m. by the Appomattox Lions club under supervision of local physicians. It is part of an effort by members of the Lynchburg Academy of Medicine to distribute Sabin vaccine to every citizen and visitor in five counties, including Appomattox, and the city of Lynchburg.

In Appomattox, three clinics will be in operation: Appomattox cannery, Pamplin cannery, and Oakville Elementary School. You are being asked to fill out the application blank printed in an inside page of the TIMES-VIRGINIAN. Take this information and your family and guests to the most convenient clinic location.

Dr. Clyde G. O'Brien, speaking for all three physicians of Appomattox, Drs. J. A. Mathews A. A. Fratrick, and himself, said, "The oral polio vaccine works fast, usually within a week. It can help protect you and your family from poliomyelitis.

In the United States, there were more than 800 cases of polio in 1962. Almost 700 of these suffered either some sort of paralysis or death from the disease. says Dr. O'Brien, "we can wipe out polio forever. He pointed out how simple it is. Just go to the clinic most convenient to you. The vaccine is administered to infants via a dropper, to young children in a spoon or paper cup, and to older children and adults absorbed in a sugar cube.

The vaccine may be given to all persons six weeks of age or older. There is no charge for the vaccine, but the Appomattox Lions Club is asking for a donation of 25 cents per person to hel defray expenses. However, club spokesmen say that none will be turned away because of lack of funds.

Mail Early; Use Zip Code Says Post Office

Postmasters J. M. Inge, Pamplin; J. K. Hamilton, Evergreen; N. H. Jones, Spout Spring; H. W. Conner, Appomattox offered these helpful hints today on how to mail your Christmas cards and gifts to insure prompt and safe delivery before December 25th.

If you use the new five cent Christmas Tree stamps on your Christmas cards, they will be sorted and delivered first and, if you include your return address with your ZIP Code number on each card envelope, they will be forwarded in the event of a change of address, or if they are undeliverable, they will be returned to you for correction of your mailing list. Also, remember you can write personal messages only on Christmas cards sent by First Class mail. Nothing but your signature is authorized on cards sent at the unsealed, Third Class rate.

The Postmasters warn against careless packing of your precious Christmas gifts. He says it is unbelievable how some people fail to use strong cartons, heavy wrapping paper and sturdy cord when packing their precious gifts for mailing. He requests that you take special care in packing breakable gifts — mark the cartons, "Fragile" —Handle With Care" and be sure to put an extra label carrying the recipient's and your name and address inside of every package.

Local Women's Clubs Hear State President, Mrs. Giles Engledove

One of the first of the holiday season events was held Monday evening as the Woman's Club of Appomattox and Junior Woman's Club joined together to hear State Woman's Club president Mrs. Giles Engledove, of Richmond, speak on "Accepting Our Responsibilities." She was introduced by Mrs. J. Kent Early, Charlotte Court House, president of the Alice Kyle District. Mrs. Engledove is a native of Appomattox.

Preceding Mrs. Engledove's address was a steak dinner served to forty members and guests at the Parkway Restaurant. Pyracantbea berries and chrysanthemums provided a gay red and green theme for the affair. Both Mrs. Engledove and Mrs. Early were presented corsages of pink carnations by the president of the Appomattox Woman's Club, Mrs. E. Carroll Smith.

Building Fund Check

A check was presented to Mrs. Engledove on behalf of both clubs toward the building of a state headquarters in Richmond. Mrs. Engledove thanked the clubs warmly for the check and reported that more and more clubs are responding to the need for a suitable headquarters for club activities in the capital.

Mrs. Engledove spoke of her many wonderful experiences in Appomattox where she first saw the "light of day." And in paying tribute to friendships in Appomattox, she added, "When people are as close as that, there is a definite place in my heart for each and every one of them."

Mrs. Englecove listed four main responsibilities of each woman: Christian responsibility, Home, Citizenship, and Club Membership. She asked the clubs' support to restore the worship of God and reverence for Him in school activities. She said that "going to church" is the most important 'meeting' each woman is asked to attend.

She called for increased effort by mothers and homemakers to make their homes attractive and instill self control and self discipline in their children. She quoted an ancient saying, "It's easier to rule a kingdom than to rule a family."

"Women have enough power to elect a president," Mrs. Engledove said, "Know how you want to vote and Vote." She asked for additional promotion and support of capable women to hold public office.

She pointed out the many accomplishments of the Woman's Clubs of America, and made a special plea for a large turnout at the April state convention of the Va. Federation. Per successful club membership and participation, she suggested that each woman carry a "Mental plus card" reading "I'll be glad to."

"A cheery reply of "I'll be glad to serve on a committee, or be a chairman, or to carry out some other duty" would do much to foster successful club activi-
